GLENDALE HOLDS FOUR SEPARATE SERVICES AS TRIBUTE TO HERO DEAD, THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE PARTICIPATE

Impressive Religious Ceremonies Take Place Sunday and on Monday Are Parades and Solemn Observances at Memorial Parks

MEMORIAL DAY, 1921, IN GLENDALE is past, but in the memories of that day of memories, there is little doubt but what it towers above any gone before. Four separate services, not to forget many other features, has kept the members of the N. P. Banks Post, Grand Army of the Republic, pretty busy since Saturday. And in their exercises and sharing their honors, the Women's Relief Corps, the Daughters and Sons of the Veterans, the Spanish-American War Veterans, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the American Legion—all joined in making Sunday and yesterday wonderful days to tribute to the city of the silent.

Sunday morning at the Baptist church the veterans were the especial guests. Sunday afternoon at the tabernacle special Memorial services were held. Monday morning at Grand View Memorial Park the local organizations joined with those of Burbank in their commemoration of the day. Monday afternoon a parade formed at Colorado and Brand boulevards at 2 o'clock and marched to Forest lawn park where extensive exercises were held. Monday evening the veterans were guests of William A. Howe, manager of the Glendale Theatre to see "The Highest Law," in which Ralph Ince portrayed the role of Abraham Lincoln.

In the afternoon's parade, John Farmer, Gerald Delgado and D. E. Heald acted as color bearers and they were followed by the American Legion band of thirty-two pieces, directed by R. D. Crawford. It made a creditable showing, indeed, the music equaling that of many an organization of longer standing. W. B. Kelley commanded the two score of Legionnaires next in line and they were followed by a firing squad from Ross field and Glendale's company of National Guardsmen. Acting Scout Executive H. Benjamin Robison had representatives of three Boy Scout troops in line and bringing up the rear were a score of automobiles carrying the members of the G. A. R., affiliated societies and school children. Many of the disabled service men from Thortycroft hospital also were included in the parade.

Impressive Program, Eulogy, Patriotism, Forest Lawn Park

One of the most impressive programs ever attempted in Southern California on such a solemn occasion as Memorial day was that presented yesterday at Forest Lawn park where in the morning the B-3, a United States navy dirigible strewed flowers on the symbolic grave and in the afternoon a mighty host of Glendale and Los Angeles people paid tribute to the heroic dead.

Messages from Warren G. Harding, president of the United States, and William D. Stephens, governor of the state of California, were read by B. E. Bassford, chairman, and the representatives of these two executives, W. I. Hollingsworth and Judge Charles S. Crail, were present and addressed the assemblage.

From the opening ode by the American legion band, to the echoed taps of the bugle, which followed by the decoration of the symbolic grave on a beautiful mound in the cemetery, there was an air of reverence and patriotism that made one's veins tingle and the spirit quiver with the thought:

"Is not the great sacrifice for one's country the glorification of the soul?"

Tribute to Hero Dead
Following the parade to Forest Lawn, the patriotic organizations and thousands of others gathered around the shaded platform to hear the hero dead eulogized, to hear the principles upon which this country is founded extolled and to participate in the pledge of patriotism over the graves of the departed.

"War Songs of the Boys in Blue" was the first number on the program by the American legion band, and this was followed by the audience. The invocation was by the Rev. C. R. Norton, and W. I. Hollingsworth then spoke for President Harding. In other columns will be found the various speeches. R. D. White, superintendent of the Glendale city schools made a brief address, following which the school children sang.

Judge Crail's speech was followed by Arden Gingers's reading of Lincoln's Gettysburg address. Madame Constance Balfour, one of the most widely known concert stars in America, sang "Three Stars" for which she received generous applause.

Justice for Disabled Veterans
Burton R. Pitts, commander of the department of California, American legion, delivered the one outstanding speech of the day and made an appeal for justice for the disabled service men that keyed the audience to a high pitch. Keamoku Lewis of the Glendale American legion post, one of the foremost entertainers in this country, sang an aria from "Faust." He held his audience enthralled and at the close he was accorded a ringing acclaim.

Burbank Has Large Share In Exercises Held at Grand View

Burbank had a large share in the Memorial Day exercises at Grand View Memorial park yesterday morning, the arrival of their contingent in parade formation being a signal for the services to begin. The officer of the day, R. N. Taylor, was a picturesque figure marshalling the parade with an escort of cowboys. Following this mounted vanguard came the school children from Burbank who strewed flowers on the graves. Gregory's Marine band furnished the music and following them came the Burbank troop of Boy Scouts, Burbank's company of National Guardsmen and members of the American Legion post there. Automobiles with members of the G. A. R., W. R. C. and other patriotic organizations followed.

Program Is Opened
T. M. Barrett, adjutant of the N. P. Banks Post, G. A. R., presided, while Dr. A. E. W. Yale, commander of the Burbank Legion Post, was in charge of arrangements. Members of the Burbank Choral club led the singing of "America" which opened the program.

In his invocation, the Rev. C. R. Norton, chaplain, rejoiced in the fact that those present had the exalted privilege of coming together to honor the memories of those who had sacrificed their lives for us.

"God grant that the effort put forth this day may redound in a spirit of genuine patriotism," he said.

Burbank's school children then furnished a song which was followed by the reading of general orders by Adjutant Barrett. These included the repetition of General John A. Logan's general order No. 11 of May 5, 1868, relative to the observance of Memorial Day. A. W. Scudder, commander of the N. P. Banks Post, then told of the purpose of the exercises

If they should happen to become infatuated with any certain part of the state Mr. Veith says that no time limit or other "joy killer" will be able to put a damper on their vacation.

The general route to be taken was through Riverside and Palm Springs with indefinite stops at each town, and probably south from there. The trip will last from two to six weeks.

The society not only appropriated the money for the church piano, but is at present supporting an Armenian orphan and plan to assist in furnishing the church as well as the denominational school located here.

The members have been invited to furnish music for a series of lectures to be given at Burbank by Pastor E. L. Neff, and others.

POLICE SERGEANT CAPTURES 4 ARMED SAFE BLOWERS
CHICAGO, May 31.—Police Sergeant John Ryan early today captured four armed safe blowers lone-handed. The four men were engaged in cracking the safe of the Chicago Typographical Union when Ryan surprised them.

NUMBER OF LOCALS SAID TO OPPOSE ENDING STRIKE
SEATTLE, May 31.—Although marine engineers of Seattle have voted to accept the latest terms of the shipping board with a view to ending at once the marine strike, their sentiment is not unanimous throughout the country according to reports this morning. The other locals of the union are said to be strongly opposed to accept any of the terms.

POLISH INSURGENTS MUTINY; GERMAN OPPOSITION BIG
OPPELN, Upper Silesia, May 31.—Polish insurgents at Cosel have mutinied, according to Italian officers here today. There was terrific fighting in the town last night. Italians on guard said it was entirely within the Polish lines. The allied detachments believed it was an indication that the Polish movement is breaking up in the face of stiff German opposition and the threat of harsh action by the allies.

ANOTHER BALKAN WAR MENACE MAY INVOLVE EUROPE

ROME, May 31.—Sweeping down from the highlands of Macedonia and Albania, great bands of irregular soldiers today are threatening to start another Balkan war which may involve all of Europe. The fighters—almost bandits in their mode of warfare, but driven by strong nationalist feeling—entered foreign countries. Pillage and arson marked their trail. The governments thus taunted immediately planned to raise forces to combat them.

EXPECT UNITED STATES TO RECOGNIZE OBREGON RULE

WASHINGTON, May 31.—President Obregon of Mexico will accept the American memorandum on the question of recognition as a "basis for negotiations," it was declared here today by advisers of the Mexican president. The exchanges which are now expected to follow between the two governments will soon develop an understanding that will prompt the United States to recognize the Obregon government, it was also believed in these quarters.

DEMANDS REDUCTION IN RATES ON FRUIT, VEGETABLES

WASHINGTON, May 31.—A demand that the proposed wage cut in railroads be accompanied by a reduction in rates on Pacific coast fruits and vegetables was made today by J. B. Malloy, vice president of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way employees and shop laborers. "Hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of fruit and vegetables cannot be shipped to the hungry east because of high rail rates and are rotting in California," Malloy said in a statement.

DYKE BREAKS, RANCHES FLOODED, LOSS IS $300,000

KALAMA, Wash., May 31.—The Woodland reclamation dyke, at the town of Woodland, near here, failed during the night and twenty-five ranches were inundated by a flood of waters which the dyke released. No lives were lost, according to the latest available reports here and at Woodland. It was estimated the damage to houses, live stock and crops, in the area, would amount to $300,000. Approximately 100 persons were forced to flee from their homes during the night.

RAIL EMPLOYES AWAIT DECISION OF LABOR BOARD

CHICAGO, May 31.—Two million rail employees were awaiting today the decision of the United States railroad labor board, which is expected to take about $400,000,000 a year from their pay envelopes. The board announced today that its decision would be made public in tomorrow morning newspapers. Although the cut applies to just common labor, it is expected decreases will be made in the pay of skilled employees soon. The board today was swamped with petitions from railroads asking permission to slash wages under the new ruling. The ruling of the board will end a long fight between employees and executives, headed by W. W. Atterbury, vice president of the Pennsylvania lines.

MOTOR, TIRE STOCKS DROP ON NEW YORK EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, May 31.—Heaviness of motor stocks was reflected in all issues during early trading on the stock exchange today. Traders said the tone was the result of price reduction announcements. Studebaker made a new low on the decline at 69 1/4, off 7 1/2 net. Pierce Arrow was off 1/2 at 22 1/4. Tire stocks likewise showed the reflection of tone of motor issues and there were sales of Kelly Springfield during early trading under 41, its opening mark. Baltimore & Ohio held the leadership in rails at 41 1/2, while steel common and Crucible showed fractional decreases. It was hoped a favorable action by directors of Pierce Arrow, who are meeting today to consider their preferred dividend, might react to the advantage of motor issues.

TARIFF REVISION TO TAKE UNTIL NEXT FALL, BELIEF

WASHINGTON, May 31.—The main purpose of the special session of congress was to revise the tariff and lighten the tax burdens but, according to conservative estimates today, these tasks will not be completed before late next fall. The house ways and means committee which has been framing the permanent tariff bill for two months, has struck several big snags and hopes that the measure would be reported to the house by June 1 have been blasted completely. Chairman Fordney now thinks that the bill may be ready by June 15, but other members of the committee doubt if it will be reported by July 1. In fact, some members believe congress will be showing good speed as the result of its past slow progress, if the new taxes are ready to go into effect January 1.

IMPORTANT TO YOU
We have been placing in this paper from time to time an advertisement which was headed this way:
"Have you heard of the shallow oil fields at Canajo, Camarillo, Ventura County?" Well, a great many of our Glendaleans have responded gracefully by seeking information and after receiving same, they have in every case purchased an interest in this lease, where the well is drilling.

We wish to announce that the showing of the first well has been far beyond our expectations and we hope to announce in the very near future that the first well is on production. From the showing now, you should expect a fine well. Some of you have hesitated, but if you are going to secure your interest in this enterprise at the present price, you will have to act without delay. H. L. had lifted the back screen window and gained entrance to the porch, trying to enter the house by jimmy-ing the door. Officers detailed to investigate reported that it seemed to be the work of youngsters, as the lock in the door had been broken.

Word was received by the local police officers from the sheriff's office
late Saturday night that Clarence Kelley, aged 21 years, who was being taken to prison, had jumped off
the train at the South Glendale station. At the time of his escape he was wearing a blue suit, tight fitting around the waist, and tan shoes. Although search was made, no trace of him could be found.

The art classes of Glendale Union
High school, which are under the direction of Miss Irene Muller, Miss Abbott and Mrs. Munson, are planning an exhibit of the art and craft work which they have done during the year. This exhibit will begin Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock and will continue until 9 o'clock in the evening. Thursday has been set aside for the parents and friends of students to examine the work. Friday, alumni day, the exhibit will be open from 10 a. m. until 9 p. m.
Saturday the exhibit will be from 1
p. m. until 9 p. m., at which time
the general public is invited.

Protests filed with the county board of supervisors may balk the plans of John Steven McGroarty in building a mission in Tujunga commemorative to the Franciscan fathers. The entire foothill community is stirred over the question and at a mass meeting, resolutions were adopted decrying the dissension toward the plan by a few of the residents, who wish Manzanita park kept intact.

Officers of the Glendale and Montrose line met with the Tujunga
Chamber of Commerce last Monday night with a view of extending their line from La Crescenta to Sunland if conditions warranted. However, no definite action was taken.

The Masonic lodge of Eagle Rock,
it is understood, will purchase a building site on Central avenue, south of the city hall, on which a new temple will be erected.

Tujunga picnic day at Monte Vista park will be held this Friday under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher association there. Summer vacation will start in the foothills on that date. Business houses are expected to close. A ball game between the married men and the boys of the school is scheduled.

Advertising the Actors' fund benefit which will be held at the Los Angeles speedway, June 4, several stars of the local firmament appeared at the Glendale Theatre Saturday night selling booster badges which are being used to defray the expenses of the gigantic show. More than $100,- 000 is being spent in arrangements and it is estimated that twice this amount will be earned next Saturday.

Manager William A. Howe introduced Miss Louise Dresser of Glendale and New York as the first speaker. She told how the actors always answered the call of others in benefit performances and asked that the public respond to their call.
She then introduced Mrs. William P.
Carleton, the latter introduced Miss Virginia Valli, leading woman for Bert Lytell, who introduced the "handsomest man of the stage,"
Jack Gardner, and after a few remarks from him, he called forth
William P. Carleton, whose work
"Inside the Cup" has made him more widely famed than before.

School's French Club
Holds Final Gathering

"Le Cercle Français," or in other words the French club of the Glendale high school, will hold their last regular meeting of the year this afternoon in the music room of the local institution. Besides electing officers for the ensuing year the members of the society will be entertained by a clever and interesting program which has been arranged by the regular social committee.

The "Cercle" is yet in its infancy, this being only its second year of existence, although it has already established itself as one of the liveliest and most enthusiastic organizations of the school.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

AT TABERNACLE
IMPRESSIVE

REV. J. C. KENDRICK, VETERAN
OF CIVIL WAR, SPEAKER
ON FAITH, COURAGE

There was a hearty response by the public to the invitation of the G. A. R.
to attend their Memorial exercises
on Sunday, 3 p. m., in the tabernacle.
The large building was fully two-thirds full. Exercises were in charge of Chaplain C. R. Norton. Dr. Joseph Marple led the singing and also gave a vocal solo. Miss Elizabeth Mottern also sang. Prayer was offered by A. V. Kendrick, member of the G. A. R. and a brother of the speaker of the afternoon.

Mr. Norton announced that there were present on the platform four pastors who were former members of the Iowa Methodist conference and asked one of them, Dr. W. G. Wilson to introduce the speaker of the afternoon. In a pleasant manner Dr.
Wilson performed the office and mentioned that when the civil war broke out, that in the 33rd regiment of the Iowa infantry were two brothers, A.
V. and J. C. Kendrick. They served throughout the war, returned home,
were converted, became ministers and were here today.

Never Missed Roll Call
The one who gave the address of the afternoon, J. C. Kendrick was for fifty-one years a member of the Iowa conference and in all that period of time never missed a conference roll call.

Rev. C. R. Norton is the fourth member present of the Iowa conference.

Despite his years, Rev. Kendrick is in good health and demonstrated it by delivering a thoughtful and forceful address from the words of the Apostle Paul to Timothy: "I have fought a good fight, I have kept the faith." He extolled the faith and courage of the great apostle.

"It is true, my friends, that if we keep the faith, the faith will keep us," he said. He advised the young and new Christians to realize that they are in a warfare. No dress parade, no target practice. Then in true Roosevelt style he described what real Americanism is—a belief in the doctrine of equality and democracy, a faithful charge of duty
at the polls.

"Not so much a matter of sentiment as practice. Talk big if you choose, but act just as big," he said.

Restricting Immigration
He favored restrictive immigration laws, to bar out the idle and vicious, but cautioned against shutting the door of opportunity in the face of any who desire to improve their condition. Color of skin should not debar anyone, he said. He praised the public schools who are teaching patriotism. He said the teachers are the real captains of industry and should be better paid.

"Our interest in the public school is another test of Americanism, for in this way and this alone can we reach the foreign and train them into good citizens," he said.

In closing he gave a little history of the union soldier boys, telling how out of 2,400,000 over 2,000,000 have passed on and less than 300,000 remain; that national cemeteries are maintained by the government.

In conclusion he said that the war produced some great men such as Grant, Sherman, Lincoln, but back of this was the Grand Army of the Republic and the equally grand army
of wives and mothers.

Lone Suggestion for Better P. E. Service

E. P. Hayward, chairman of the public utilities committee of the Chamber of Commerce, reports that only one suggestion for the betterment of the Pacific Electric service has been received here since the state railroad commission began its exhaustive survey of the line. Mr.
Hayward concludes that either Glendale people are satisfied with the Glendale line of the P. E. or they have overlooked an opportunity "to have their say or forever hold their peace." The one recommendation called for more trains in the morning and evenings.

HE'S CHARTER MEMBER
Adjutant T. W. Barrett of the N.
P. Banks post reports that in the statistical facts published Saturday in The Glendale Evening News the name of George W. Sanford, a charter member, was inadvertently omitted.

Rev. Robert M'Quilkin

of New York City Is Presbyterian Speaker

The people of the Presbyterian church were greatly privileged in hearing, Sunday morning, Rev. Robert C. McQuilkin, of New York, who has become very widely known through the country in connection with the Victorious Life Conferences,
one of which has been meeting during the past week in Pasadena. A brief resume of his address follows:

"The greatest miracle recorded in the Bible is the resurrection of Jesus Christ. The greatest miracle in the world today is the living of the Christian life—not as it is usually lived, but as God means it to be lived. The power of God is the power that was used in the resurrection. That power is the power in which we are expected and intended to live. "Strengthened with all power unto all patience" for present day living. The supreme work of the Spirit is for present day living. If this is so, if it is for just such folks as we are, we should expect to find perfectly plain teaching about it. If you have been mixed up, it is from man's teaching. If it is true it is simple; if it isn't simple it isn't true.

"In John 7:38, 39 are the words of Jesus, 'He that believeth in Me, out of his inmost being shall flow rivers of living water. But this spake He of the Spirit, which they that believe in Him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet glorified.' And John 16: 5, 7-13: 'But now I go my way to Him that sent Me—it is ex-pedit for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you—when He, the Spirit of truth, is come, He will guide you into all truth.'

Would Feel Sorrow
"How would you feel if you had companionship with Jesus three years and then been told he would go away? You would feel sorrow. But He was saying: 'It is a good thing for you that I go away; the Spirit who is to come will guide you into all truth.'
'When He comes He will convict the world of sin'—not sins: the sin of not receiving the Lord Jesus. Men before had known their sins—any man may know his sins without any conviction by the Holy Spirit.

"The Bible says, 'When the books are opened, they will be judged according to their works. And another book was opened which was the book of life,' there was nothing there about works. Believing or not believing on the Lord Jesus is the one sin that will be dealt with at the judgment. The Holy Spirit will convict the world of righteousness. Jesus showed what the perfect man should be: in the power of the Holy Ghost he lived it. But your good upright moral man who knows not God
—he is lost. Why? He doesn't have one single bit of God's righteousness, the only kind that will save him. The only way a man may see this is by looking at one who has it. And so the Spirit must come to make men
the exponents of that life. 'Be filled with the Spirit,' have that righteousness. The world should see in you a human being in whom Satan's power is broken.

Gift Common to All
"Now, how can I tell when I am baptized of the Holy Ghost? We read of the baptism of Pentecost;
when does God will it for us? Now,
and those apostles received many different gifts—endowments. Is there a gift that is in common for every single one? Yes; to anybody who wants to understand. The purpose of the coming of the Holy Spirit was to glorify Jesus Christ, to make Him
real, here on earth. And every member of His body is a manifestor of the glory, in every moment, in every duty.
Look at Galatians 5:22, 23; count
now: 'The fruit of the Spirit is love,
joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness,
goodness, faith, meekness, temperance'; nine. Listen; the fruit of the Spirit is one—love: a nine-fold fruit.
All those different things are love, really just one thing. The world can see this fruit of Christ only in you.
Now, the good man of the world—he doesn't have the fruits of the Spirit.
"The great central work of the life of the Spirit is victory over sin. And the victory is a free gift. It is just as impossible for us to do this for ourselves as to save ourselves. God is just waiting for us to come and take it from Him. We can't strive to do it; we can only yield this moment
to Him, and take. And afterwards, just stay there. If anyone has not Christ yet, take Him. And then, get back home where you belong. There is nothing to do but take and thank."

Home Talent Program
Is Given By the Elks

A program composed entirely of home talent was given at the Elks'
last night following a short business meeting. The entertainment included several very excellent selections by the band, the members of which are mostly Elks; vocal numbers by Senator Arbuckle and Ed. Perkins of Fillmore, Howard Williams of Fillmore, Roy Leake of Eagle Rock, J.
F. Hayward and E. P. Hayward of Glendale, Ed. Albright, and Walter Butler, also of Glendale. Herbert Hanning played the piano accompanment for all these numbers and also rendered several vocal solos. Joe Griffin gave a most excellent tribute to Decoration day and ended his number by repeating Lincoln's Gettysburg address. Brother Crawford, leader of the band, gave a most unique and original musical monologue sketch, in costume. One of the features of the evening's entertainment was the singing of a song written by Reed Heustis and which has been dedicated to the Elks.

What Optical Science is doing

to develop better vision

Just two pieces of glass. And yet these lenses which correct so effectively the defects of vision are possible only because of the highly-trained skill of the optical specialist, aided by scientific instruments of perfect precision.

The conditions of modern life constantly increase the number of people whose efficiency or health is lowered
by some impairment of eyesight—
for which the remedy is glasses prescribed and fitted after a thorough examination.

Most people do not know when eyesight trouble really begins; usually it starts so gradually that for a long while it may not even be noticeable.

Imperfect vision, if not rectified, grows worse with the years. The surest way of preserving your eyesight at maximum efficiency throughout life is to go to an optical specialist
for an examination once a year.

ROOM FOR BUT ONE 'ISM' HERE, SAYS LEGION LEADER

UNADULTERATED AMERICANISM
WANTED, STATES E. R. FITTS
AT MEMORIAL SERVICES

"There is room for only one 'ism' in this great land of ours and that is plain, 100 per cent, unadulterated Americanism."

That was the closing declaration of an address by Buron R. Fitts, state commander of the American Legion, at the Memorial Day exercises in Forest Lawn Memorial park yesterday afternoon. To say that he electrified his hearers with patriotism but mildly indicates the fire and enthusiasm displayed by this wounded veteran of the world war who has risen to the highest honor which can be accorded him by his "buddies" in this state. Mr. Fitts said in part: "We are here today for the purpose of funeral rites without the sadness. We are here to give new assurances with tender memories to the everlasting principles for which 54,000 'buddies' laid down their lives in France."

They Formed Mighty Army
"It is less than four and one-half years since that news was flashed across the ocean that this nation had declared war on Germany. Then it was that the school boys, lawyers, doctors, teachers—without distinction of race or rank or religion—formed a mighty army, and today we consecrate their memories."

"I wish I had the time to tell you how these schoolboy soldiers laid down their lives. Sick, chilled to the bone, they were brought out of one battle to be taken into another. How these tired, exhausted boys as they stumbled on—into the battle of Argonne, for instance—and then with a tired groan, they sank to the ground!"

"And then it was that our dearest brother, our buddy, gave his life in the defense of certain principles. That would be the message he would send to you if he could, 'I died for principle.'"

Thousands in Need of Care
"There are 641,000 disabled veterans in America today," continued the speaker. Sixteen thousand of these should be operated upon, but they are walking the streets because they have not the beds in government hospitals to take care of them. "And I know that the message to us from those who died on the battlefield would be to take care of their disabled buddies."

"If I could but take you through these hospitals in Los Angeles and in Glendale where there are a part of the 72,000 afflicted with tuberculosis you would realize the duty of the American people that those buddies receive justice—not sympathy."

Commander Fitts then spoke of the principle for which his buddies gave their lives—a principle of the American Legion—Americanism. He urged summary action with those who would despoil our constitution and concluded by saying:

"In all America there is no room for the I. W. W. or the bolshevik or the syndicalist. There is room for only one 'ism' in this great land of ours and that is plain, 100 per cent, unadulterated Americanism."

Griffin's Plumbing Shop Is Modern Institution

William Griffin, widely known master plumber, has opened a shop at 806 South San Fernando road in his own building, a white, light attractive structure that is pioneering a new business section at the corner of Windsor road. Green trim is used throughout the building while the interior is done in yellow.

Complete shelving equipment for plumbing accessories, hardware and oils has been installed and Mr. Griffin is receiving stock in truckload lots. He has provided a large display room for a complete line of plumbing fixtures.

The shop to the rear is up to the minute in its convenience for the workmen and additional shelving is provided for pipe, etc. Lavatories are provided for both the employees and visitors.

Mr. Griffin is confident of the future of San Fernando road and he will be pleased to have his many friends and patrons inspect this new establishment.

PLENTY OF TIME

The other night a young man was visiting his best girl, and he stayed on and on until she became very sleepy indeed. Also she had to work the next day and thought it was time for him to go home. Finally she said:

"Don't you think you had better telephone for a taxi to go home in? It's so late now and there have been several robberies out in this part of town after midnight."

The young man was visibly pleased at her suggestion. "Oh, yes, please do," he returned. "I'm not afraid, but the taxi will take me home so much faster than I can walk that I can stay at least an hour longer."

—to cherish the memories of the dead.

"The Blue and the Gray" was sung by Mrs. Charles Pomeroy and Mrs. Mary Marxmiller and prayer was offered by Chaplain Norton. Adjutant Barrett read the list of those who had answered the last call during the year. Officer of the Day R. N. Taylor placed the wreath on the symbolic grave for the unknown dead, and Albert Bach, a Burbank high school boy, repeated Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg address.

After the band played "Nearer My God to Thee," the Rev. C. M. Crist gave the address of the day. The services were brought to a close by the audience singing "When the Roll Is Called Up Yonder" and following the benediction by Chaplain Norton, the Legionnaires' firing squad gave the customary salute to the dead and taps were sounded.

"Carry On!" Used By R. D. White As Theme for Address

"Carry On!" was the theme of the brief address given yesterday by Richardson D. White, superintendent of the city schools at Forest Lawn.

"It gives me pleasure to have the opportunity to do honor with you today to our departed heroes of '61 and '65 and those later heroes who made the great sacrifice in France," he said. "We can do little to honor them other than to think why they did these deeds."

"Do you think it was because of the purple mountains and fruited plains or the great wealth of this nation?"

"I think that which inspired them was their love of the ideals of civic and religious liberty, education and industrial freedom. And I wonder if their silent lips could send us a message, what would it be? I believe it would be, 'Carry on to all of the corners of the earth.'"

"There must be someone ready to receive the banner of liberty from our faltering grasp," concluded Mr. White. It is our duty to teach to our children for what that banner stands. And if we shall today rededicate ourselves to this cause, we could pay no higher tribute to those who have departed.

who was forced to appear on crutches, won repeated applause with his rendition of "Friend of Mine." Frederick Warde, star of the Mission Play, read "The God of the Open Air," in a way which is his own, which has made him world famous as an actor. Indeed, words utterly fail to convey the impression of solemnity and reverence that Mr. Warde is able to endow his hearers.

Services by Grand Army
Then came the ritualistic services by the Grand Army with Adjutant T. M. Barrett presiding. A. W. Scudder, commander of the N. P. Banks post, G. A. R., the Rev. C. R. Norton, chaplain, and R. N. Taylor, officer of the day, were the principals in the customary honor paid to the departed comrades.

As a fitting conclusion, the audience retired to the symbolic grave where Glendale's company of National Guardsmen were formed in skirmish formation about the members of the post and corps. After the grave had been decorated by the various organizations and with many wreaths from both the president and governor, the usual salute was given by a firing squad from Ross Field, Arcadia, and taps were then sounded.

Chaplain Norton pronounced the benediction as a bugler over yon eastern hills echoes the last call, so sweet to the soldier who sleeps, sleeps on forever more.

Three War Veterans Enjoy Dinner Party

Rev. and Mrs. C. R. Norton of 801 East Wilson avenue were dinner hosts Sunday to W. G. Wilson of Pasadena and Rev. J. C. Kembrick and his brother, A. V. Kembrick of Long Beach. The guests spent the entire day in Glendale, attending the Memorial Day services at the Baptist church in the morning and at the tabernacle in the afternoon.

These three veterans have been friends of Rev. and Mrs. Norton more than thirty years, and they enjoyed recalling old times and telling stories on each other. They are all former residents of the same town in Iowa.

LAUNDRY OBSERVES HOLIDAY
For the first time in its history the Glendale Laundry closed yesterday on Memorial day. W. E. Hewitt, manager, announces that this makes the third holiday in the year, the others being Fourth of July and Christmas.

VISIT AT OCEAN PARK
Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Salmacia and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rochet enjoyed the holiday week-end at Ocean Park.

WHY NOT FLOWERS FOR LIVING? ASKS REV. C. M. CRIST

PRINCIPAL SPEAKER AT GRAND VIEW EXERCISE SEES PROB-LEMS AHEAD OF NATION

Flowers for the living, as well as the dead, was the keynote of the principal address delivered at Grand View Memorial Park yesterday morning by the Rev. C. M. Crist of the First Methodist church, a son of a soldier in the civil war who gave his life to the preservation of the union. The Rev. Mr. Crist said in part:

"The memorial idea comes to us from the dim and distant past. By spontaneous impulse men have always erected monuments to those whom 'they have loved long since and lost awhile.' Here and there throughout the world are high mounds or pyramids that mark the resting places of the dead. The most enduring monuments, however, are not those composed of granite, or marble, or bronze, but those that are erected in the minds and hearts of a loving and appreciative populace."

Lord Approves Idea

"Jesus Christ set his approval upon the memorial idea when he said of the woman who rendered her loving service in the breaking of the alabaster box, 'wherever the Gospel is preached this that she hath done will be spoken as a memorial of her.' In the sacred institution of the Lord's Supper we also hear him say, 'As oft as ye do this do it in remembrance of Me!'"

"It is with some such appreciation of the sacrifices of others that our American nation has set aside the 30th day of May as Memorial day. The history of the day in its inception is beautiful. In 1864 the graves of the union soldiers were scattered over the southern states and the negroes, from a spontaneous impulse in expression of gratitude to their saviours went forth one night to place flowers upon the graves of the nation's heroic dead. The whole country soon after followed their suggestion and thus brought into existence this day. The feeling in every heart should be, 'They suffered for me.' We know full well that the mighty struggle was not primarily to set free 3,000,000 negroes, but to preserve and perpetuate the union. The emancipation of the slave was incidental. Thank God for the incidental."

Commemorates Self-Sacrifice

"The essential idea of Memorial day is not to keep alive feelings of hatred and vengeance; nor is it to revive sectional strife and discord, but it is to commemorate the self-sacrificing deeds of brave and heroic men. So with the poet we say:

"Bring of earth's blossoms the fairest,
Born of the sunshine and rain,
Violets blue from the meadows, lilies from valley and plain,
Garlands of roses and laurel, wreaths of the myrtle and pine,
Emblems of love and affection for our dead heroes entwined."

"Hail to our nation united, land of the loyal and free
Firm in the strength of its union, reaching from sea unto sea.
Hail to the heroes now sleeping, honor and love to the brave,
And o'er our noble defenders long may the Stars and Stripes wave."

"Bring of earth's blossoms the fairest, born of the sunshine and rain, Violets blue from the meadows, lilies from valley and plain
Chaplets of myrtle and laurel, wreaths of the red, white and blue, Gems of the beautiful scatter over our heroes so true."

"But another purpose of Memorial day is that we might highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain."

"We Must Preserve Heritage"

"We, their sons, must preserve that which came to us as a heritage. The call of today is for loyalty. The land is not free from the despoiler. In the midst of a polyglot people and the babble of tongues we are called to defend America. Our sacred and time honored institutions depend upon us for their perpetuity. It may not be ours to protect 'Old Glory' by shot and shell as our fathers did, but it is ours by vigilance and ballots to fight valiantly for her honor."

"And to you, the living soldiers, we pause to do honor and to say 'thank you.' We give to you the solemn pledge of unflinching loyalty to the dear old flag, the home and 'our country.'"

ABSOLUTELY NO CLEW

He was a professional conjurer. "Now, ladies and gentlemen," he said, with a wave of the hand, "this is the magic cabinet. I invite any lady in the audience to enter this cabinet. I will then close the door, and when it shall be opened again the lady will have disappeared, leaving no trace."

There was an impressive silence until a little under-sized man in the second row turned to an enormous woman, who sat by him, and breathed eagerly: "Marie, dear, won't you oblige the gentleman?"

Better Appreciation Of Sacrifices Seen by Judge C. S. Crail

Judge Charles S. Crail, special representative of Governor William D. Stephens, speaking at the ceremonies held in Forest Lawn yesterday afternoon, declared Memorial Day to be one of "resolutions for good deeds, better appreciation of the sacrifices of our soldiers, officials and statesmen, sympathy for our neighbors and the greatest help for all mankind."

"When I remind you, fellow citizens and friends, that the legislature has only recently adjourned after having passed more than 2,000 bills, which are before the Governor to approve by next Saturday, you can readily understand why he could not be here with us today," explained Judge Crail.

"But I am sure his heart is with us and I, in humble speech, will endeavor to say what he would say with eloquence on an occasion such as this."

"A grateful nation stands at the graves of its departed heroes and mourns for them with aching hearts. Some of these graves are 7,000 miles away. Some are new, over which the grass has not had time to bloom. Some are unknown. But wherever these graves are or however humble the soldier buried there, the folds of Old Glory are raised in the honor of each today and the eyes of a grateful people shed tears of gratitude in their remembrance."

"It is for the boys of '61 and later years, who laid down their lives for the best country that the stars of Heaven shine upon, that we are here to do honor. Yes, friends, our hearts should be filled with sweet and noble patriotism for the love of country and the love of home."

G. A. R. AND LEGION'S RELATIONSHIP REVEALED

REV. C. R. NORTON, N. P. BANKS
POST CHAPLAIN, EXPRESSES
MEMORIAL DAY THOUGHT

Of all the Memorial Day speeches made here yesterday, probably none rang truer than that of the Rev. C. R. Norton, chaplain of N. P. Banks post, Grand Army of the Republic, who had the last word at the services held in Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

It was not so much the spoken word, but the thought he transplanted in the minds of his hearers that expressed the true relationship between the veterans of the Civil War and those of the more recent World War.

"Never Trails the Dust"
"We have been deeply moved by these speeches today," he said, "but I want to tell you the old story of the standard bearer who reported at headquarters after the battle, and although he was wounded and dying, he pointed to that flag which flies over us today and gasped, 'She never touched the ground.'"

"May it be the blessing of God that that flag never shall be trailed in the dust by any enemy, be it on our home shores or on any shores," said the veteran divine.

"That flag never has been unfurled for conquest, only for righteous principle. When Dewey sailed into Manila bay not a vessel was lost, not a man lost, but the tyrannical heel of Spain was broken!"

Fought to Preserve Union

"The purpose of the war of '61 was not to free the slaves alone, but to preserve the union," he declared. By the beautiful simile of the shade of a tree at sunset, the Rev. Mr. Norton painted a picture of tree of patriotism, of ideals, brought into maturity by the Grand Army of the Republic, whose task is now being taken up by the American legion.

Informal Dance, Supper Given By Patrol Team

The White Star Patrol team of the Glendale lodge of Elks No. 1289, of which W. C. Wattles is captain and G. A. Dockery, manager, entertained their ladies at a very jolly informal dance and midnight supper at the clubhouse Friday night.

Art Griffin and Tony Gage, assisted by Herbert Ferguson, Earl Garren and Harry Moore, were in charge of arrangements for the evening's entertainment, which was enjoyed by 75 members of the drill team and their friends. Henning's three-piece orchestra furnished music for dancing. After a supper of sandwiches, coffee, relishes, ice-cream and wafers had been served little Doris Wolfe very daintily danced the "Highland Fling."

A surprise number was furnished by the impromptu vocal solo most ably sung by Ralph Webster, who is to be complimented upon the most excellent manner in which he responded, having had no previous notice that he was to contribute to the evening's program.

The usual congenial atmosphere which is associated with patrol team affairs made last night's dance a decided success.

It isn't enough for France to safeguard posterity; she must also provide a posterity to safeguard France.

U. S. AS MONUMENT OF PEACE, LIBERTY AND WISDOM

THAT'S CITY TRUSTEE STEPHEN-SON'S DESIRE IN SPEECH AT FOREST LAWN EXERCISES

Dwight W. Stephenson, president of the Glendale Board of Trustees, in introducing his speech stated that for a third time he appeared before Glendale audiences on Memorial Day.

"The first time," he said, "was in 1917, just before leaving to answer the call to arms in the cause of Humanity, Justice and Right; the second time was in 1919, after returning from doing my bit; and again today, as President of the Board of Trustees of your City. Indeed it would seem as though you had heard enough from me and I assure you that there arises in my mind the question: What more can I say than I already have said?"

France Seen Perishing.

"Four years ago today when I appeared before you—it is hard to realize that it was that long ago—our hearts were sad and our minds bowed down with the realization that our beloved country had entered the most terrible war of history. There were tears in our eyes as we dwelt on the horrors and atrocities committed by our brutal foe. We heard the wail of violated Belgium and the moaning of her starved. We saw France perishing before our eyes. We realized that we must fight and keep on fighting until that crown which lay across the high road of progress as a barrier was broken and the way cleared for Liberty. We knew there could be no hope of enduring peace so long as the standard of the Black Eagle of Prussia endured."

Fangs of Wolf Pulled.

"You know as well as I do the results of that awful struggle. The violation of Belgium and her womanhood is avenged, and France and the World saved from the iron yoke of the Prussian horde. The black eagle no longer flies; the crown that blocked the highroad of progress is now a memory only and the house of Hohenzollern is like a wolf whose fangs have been pulled."

"Today as we meet together the horrors of four years ago and the rejoicing of two years ago are but memories, and our minds are clear to dwell for a moment on the sentiments which call us forth each year, on an occasion which is becoming increasingly sacred to us, to deck with flags and garlands of flowers the graves of comrades who have passed into the Great Beyond. We do not do this merely as a token of memory; but rather in reverence to a Great Idea—Freedom."

"Men of the Grand Army, it burned in your hearts that a bonded, shackled people might be free and the flame so kindled sprang into life again in 1917 in the hearts of our young men that all the peoples of the earth might forever be free from the bonds of tyrants and oppressors."

Prayer for Unknown Graves.

"It is a regrettable fact that we are unable to deck with flowers the final resting place of all our dead for we would indeed deem it a privilege to in some material, physical way show our respect, our love and our appreciation for their supreme sacrifice, but many of them sleep in the fields of the country they gave their lives to save, and we must content ourselves with the prayer that the wild flowers may cover them with a blanket far sweeter and far more beautiful than any mortal hands could fashion."

"We cannot by any material or physical manifestation demonstrate that their memory is ever dear to us, but in our hearts is erected a monument to their memory which will remain until we, ourselves, lay down life's burdens and sleep the long sleep of Death."

"With the memory of those dear comrades fresh in our minds, let all of us go home today with the prayer in our hearts that our Country may become a vast and splendid monument, not of oppression and terror, but of Wisdom, of Peace and of Liberty, upon which the whole world may gaze with admiration forever and ever."

Ticket Holder No. 360 Gets Airplane Trip

Announcement was made at the Chamber of Commerce this morning by the committee of Glendale ladies in charge of raising funds for the kitchen of Monte Vista home for undernourished children that the person having ticket No. 360 would be entitled to a ride in L. C. Brand's aeroplane, and is asked to communicate with Mrs. R. D. George, 626 North Jackson street, Glendale 743-J, to make arrangements for the trip. The kitchen at Monte Vista home is practically completed and is now ready for the utensils and supplies, which, it is expected, will be in place by the end of the week.

ELKS' TEAM DEFEATED

In a practice game with Van Nuys the Glendale Elks' ball team was trimmed to the tune of 10 to 5. About half of the regular team played.

W. I. Hollingsworth Is Speaker Here for President Harding

"I consider it a great honor to be here as the special representative of the President of the United States," said W. I. Hollingsworth, after B. E. Bassford, chairman of the Forest Lawn Memorial Park exercises yesterday afternoon had read the telegram Warren G. Harding, the national executive, asking Mr. Hollingsworth to serve in that capacity.

"My heart is filled with the mingled feeling of grief and pride," continued the speaker. "Grief that we miss these fallen heroes in the paths of life more than in the home. Pride in that they heard the call of duty and Christ-like were willing to lay down their lives that this democracy may endure forever."

OLD SOLDIERS HEAR SPECIAL SERMON BY REV. FORD

MEMBERS OF G. A. R. ATTEND SERVICES CONDUCTED AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The Grand Army Post and Woman's Relief corps attended divine service in a body Sunday morning at the First Baptist church and listened to a patriotic and stirring sermon by the pastor, Rev. E. E. Ford. The music consisted of an anthem by the choir; Mrs. Vera McKee Neighbors sang the "Recessional" by Reginald DeKoven.

The subject selected by Rev. E. E. Ford was "Our Substitute," text Romans 5-8, "God commendeth His love to us in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us." The speaker opened his sermon by reciting the following lines:

Appomattox, May, 1865
"The Blue and Gray came together one day,
And this is how it came true:
The boys in Blue were gray with dust,
And the boys in Gray were blue."

Memorial Day, May, 1921
The Blue and Gray are together again.
But not in the self-same way.
The boys in Gray are now true blue,
And the boys in Blue are gray."

Continuing, he said in part:
"Gratitude is the fairest flower that sheds its perfume in the heart. How much we owe the brave men who left their homes for the battlefield, the prison pen, the hospital and the grave. 'Honor to whom honor is due, and tribute to whom tribute is due.' How much of honor is due you men and your fallen comrades cannot be told. We sing 'My Country 'Tis of Thee, Sweet Land of Liberty,' but liberty was ever purchased at the price of blood. We meet here today to pay tribute to the memory of the men whose life blood was spilled that our union might be preserved."

"The Revolutionary War gave our fathers a free land. The War of 1812 a free sea. Prosperity ensued, but the mistake of our fathers had not been corrected. Four million slaves were in fetters. Mercy heard their cries and justice held aloft the scales in which our drop of blood shed by the Master's look outweighed a nation's gold. But let us be great enough to forget the bitterness of that great struggle; great enough to know that honest and brave men fought on both sides. We can all unite in praise to God that He gave us a man with a heart big enough for all the people—Abraham Lincoln. At his call thousands went forth to do or die."

Hero of First Century
"For others, for us, 'Our Substitute.' Go tomorrow to some 'God's Acre' and there with bowed head and throbbing heart feel what words cannot express. Shall we weave garlands and strew flowers in grateful memory of these men? Yes! Yes! But let us not forget to weave garlands of noble deeds to honor Him who shed his life blood to redeem a world in bondage and sin. Single-handed the hero of the first century—Christ—wrote the Emancipation Proclamation in His own blood, conquered Satan and his allies and set an enslaved world free."

"We honor the old flag with the red, white and blue, emblematic of sacrificial blood, purity of purpose, the sky which over-arches us and out of whose wondrous depths there came over 1900 years ago the incarnation of heaven's love. Let the time soon come, oh, ruler of men, when not only from every school house but every church spire this God-given emblem of liberty shall wave and beneath the shining folds may there be an open Bible to teach the world where America learned that lesson of true liberty."

The G. A. R. were highly pleased with this inspiring address and under Chaplain Norton's lead gave a three-time-three hand clap of appreciation.

Wanda Hawley Elopel!
At the Palace Grand

An example of California's diversity in out-of-door scenery is furnished in "Her First Elopement," the clever new Wanda Hawley comedy-drama which plays at the Palace Grand Theatre today. Much of the out-door "locations" were taken at Del Monte, Cal.

Now it so happens that this famous resort also furnished "location" for the star's recent picture, "Miss Hobbs." And yet the scenery required is altogether different! The incident expresses excellently one of the reasons why California has held the studio supremacy over all comers. Many world-travelers have said that nowhere can one get such a diversity of mountain, sea and desert locations—all within a few miles.

Rural atmosphere will furnish fun in Fatty Arbuckle's comedy, "A Country Hero," in which Alice Lake is the leading woman. One of the exciting episodes is the explosion of a "flivver" in the main street of Jazzyville, which wasn't more than a hundred miles away from Glendale.

And the music is equal to the pictures, of course.

The early lawn mower gets the neighbor's goat.

Expresses Thanks For Bundle Day's Workers

Editor The Evening News:—"Bundle Day" for the Near East Relief is over. It was a most glorious success from every point, for Glendale, in fact for southern California. Not a man, boy or woman was asked to contribute toward it any minor or greater labor, did not so with dash and interest. It was put over with great credit to Glendale as she always does things, and especially in her interest in the Near East Relief, where she takes second place to none. Nearly four tons of cast-off clothing were gathered in every nook and corner of our city and yet there is more to follow. In this public way I am taking this opportunity to most heartily thank the Y. M. C. A. and Scout Boys, Rex Kelly and Ben Robinson, the men and women who operated their machines, the teachers of the various schools and principals, the papers for publicity, the city of Glendale for the use of the Fire House as "Bundle Stations" and the Fire Boys who added their "bit" in no small degree.

District Director,
R. W. MOTTERN.

Things Do Move

A certain lady on Riverdale Drive does not believe in betting unless it is on "a sure thing."

A few days ago she sent her husband to a grocery on Columbus avenue, telling him it was on the west side of the street near Lomita.

When he returned, the following conversation took place:

He: "I thought you said that grocery was on the west side of the street."

She: "That's what I said."

He: "Well, you're wrong. It's on the east side."

She: "I say it's on the west."

He: "I say it's on the east."

She: "What have you been drinking? It's on the west."

He: "Ginger beer. It's on the east."

She: "I'll bet you five it's on the west."

He: "I'll take you. You'll have to show me."

So she put on her hat, and took hubby by the sleeve to show him. She saw where it used to stand, but the building was not there.

She (formerly of Iowa—rubbing her eyes): "This reminds me of the doings back home."

He (chuckling): "Easy money."

The grocery now stands alongside the Pacific avenue school, the house-mover having made a good job of it.

After a war, men still hunger for excitement and combat. And that doubtless explains the increase of bigamy.

Sanitarium Operating Room Is Well Lighted

That the main operating room at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital provides more light than is usually found in like institutions is proven by the fact that special films had to be procured in order to obtain a photo of the interior of the room. Also the generous size of the room makes it possible to have the operating table in the center of the room at right angles to the windows whereby the operators are never in their own shadow.

Tests have shown that so-called blind fishes, living in caves, can be taught to see by the introduction of light.

BIBLE SHOULD BE PUT BACK IN SCHOOLS, SAYS DR. CRIST,
IN SERMON ON SUNDAY

At the First Methodist church on Sunday morning Dr. Crist spoke to a large audience that almost completely filled the great auditorium. Rev. Crist's text was Ephesians, 2:19-20: "Now, therefore, ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints; and of the household of God; and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone." The following is a brief epitome of the sermon:

"Jesus Christ is the foundation of all that is noblest and best in men and institutions. When one becomes a Christian he not only parts with sinful company, but he becomes joined to the best in history, art, music, literature and living men. There is something striking in the way Paul sets forth the fact that Jesus Christ is not only part of the foundation, but the most conspicuous part, the chief corner stone.

"History is built about those who have builded themselves upon the great foundation. In fact there is no history—it is biography. All that is strong and noble, all that is beautiful and tender clusters about that which centers itself in the son of God. He is the chief corner stone in all the enduring realities of life.

Thinking of Soldiers

"We are thinking today especially of our soldiers and our sailors who have given to us our glorious heritage in this great country. We gratefully remember the 'Boys of the 60's,' the Spanish American Veterans and our boys of the late world war. But after all the only adequate expression of our appreciation is to be found in the facing of our own obligations and responsibilities. Jesus Christ must be builded into our own day, and by us. Our soldiers have done their work and God forbid that any will ever be called to do a like service; but our task is with us today and tomorrow.

"The present day world needs to be saved—by us. There are signs of decay and degeneration that must be dealt with as symptoms of a national disease. When one sees upon the printed page, in much of the modern dress and in the kind of amusements the unspeakable vulgarity of our day we should tremble before the Judge of all the earth. When there is such an evident disregard for holy institutions, such a terrifying increase in unholy marriages, such unmitigated folly and foolishness everywhere, the true American should feel a mighty concern.

New National Utterance.

"That which was done yesterday by way of service is not sufficient for this day of tremendous obligation. What is the heroic work to which we are called? First, we need a new national utterance concerning Jesus Christ. The pomp of glory, the pride of politics and the business of state have crowded out Jesus Christ! Our nation to endure must have Him as the chief cornerstone. If the American church is to save the world the American politician must be a Christian. The man who presumes to be ambitious for place or power in our nation or in our municipalities must be a Christian and a member of the church.

"Much criticism, from certain quarters, has been offered because of the church's activity in political affairs. Well, God pity the community if the church does not take part! As a nation we should see to it that the Bible should be put back into our schools. God Almighty will hold us responsible. We cannot call ourselves Christian and at the same time refuse recognition of the Bible.

"Another fundamental of a Christian nation is the Christian Sabbath. Today commercial and other unholy interests have combined to change the holy day into a holiday. So much propaganda is broadcast in the land that many Christian people have come to think that everyone is free to do as he pleases in this country. The devil never told a greater lie. If we are going to be a Christian nation then, we must preserve Christian institutions, and the Sabbath is a Christian institution. Much is being said about blue laws. What are blue laws? Every law is blue to the law breaker. The very term blue laws is propaganda by those who are un-Christian.

"Yes, let us put flowers on the graves of the heroic dead, but let us do more. Let us be heroic ourselves. This nation is ours to preserve and it can only be done by recognizing Jesus Christ as the corner stone."

WILLING TO TRADE

John Hays Hammond is one of the richest men in the world, and a tax collector tells a good story about him.

The collector called on Mr. Hammond one day on the subject of income tax, and Mr. Hammond, after his income tax had been computed, said:

"Look here, I guess I'll keep the tax and let you government people have the income."

'Reputation' In Premier Showing at Glendale

"Reputation," the newest Universal Jewel super-feature, starring Priscilla Dean at the Glendale Theatre today and tomorrow, is heralded as a dramatic thunderbolt of tremendous power. After her two recent successes, "The Virgin of Stamboul" and "Outside the Law," Universal realized it would require a photoplay of extraordinary strength to complete the dramatic trilogy.

The most interesting feature of "Reputation" is the fact that it permits Priscilla Dean to play a dual role—a mother and daughter—both possessing marked histrionic genius, but differing in every other characteristic. The mother is a woman who has violated social code and sunk to moral depths in inverse ratio to her rise in fame and popularity. The daughter, on the other hand, raised in a county asylum, blooms like a violet in a swamp, and grows up to pure and charming young womanhood. The mother has forgotten the daughter's existence, while the child has never known her mother's identity. Fate brings the two together under circumstances that try their souls and make for big dramatic situations.

A Rolin comedy, "No Children" and Pathe News round out the bill, the feature of which is now having its showing in Los Angeles. All of which indicates that Glendale is getting the latest in filmdom for premiere presentation here.

Glendale Tennis Team Beats South Pasadena

Glendale High school's extraordinary tennis team continued their long and consistent winning streak Thursday afternoon of last week when the sturdy racket wielders representing the local institution "hung it on" South Pasadena by the score of 9 to 8. Tom Morgan and Andrew McDonald, playing first and second men, respectively, were the outstanding stars of the day, handling themselves like champions throughout their matches. Wilbur Johns and Norman Beggs, the other member of the Glendale team, also made a creditable showing.

The victory over South Pasadena puts the locals in a tie for first honors with Alhambra and the winner of these two schools will be the champion of the Central league.

PASTOR MAKES PLEA FOR DISARMAMENT BY ALL NATIONS

UNIVERSAL PEACE CAN'T COME WITH GREAT FLEETS AND ARMIES, SAYS DR. FUNK

Dr. H. C. Funk, pastor of the First Lutheran church, took for his subject last Sunday "When Wars Shall Cease" as being particularly fitting for a Memorial Day Sunday topic. He said, in part:

"Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. Isa. 2:4. Our Memorial day has taken on new character. Fifty-six years ago the Civil war came to an end. Of the number who went into the war chanting, 'We are coming, Father Abraham, three hundred thousand more,' only a few remain to ride to our national ceremonies on Decoration day in automobiles. Great changes have come to pass during the interval between the civil and great world wars, but one thing remains unchanged, and that is the determination that 'government of the people, by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth.'

Exhibition of Efficiency
"Moreover the young men of America have shown an alacrity in responding to their country's call, and have given an exhibition of efficiency and deeds of valor that has called forth the admiration of the world.

"From the government's report we learn that the war casualties were 77,644 deaths, of which number 34,844 were killed in action; 13,960 died of wounds, 23,738 from disease and 5,102 from accidents and other causes. The wounded numbered 215,423. That the military leaders and officers exercised great care in the oversight of all the soldiers is shown by the fact that only three men are missing and unaccounted for. This is a record for which they deserve much credit.

"Our nation may indeed be thankful for a record that reveals this great truth, that we went into the Civil war, into the war with Spain, and into the world war with unselfish motives. These wars were waged for noble purposes, for the uplift of mankind.

Swords Into Plowshares
"In our study this morning we shall dare to hope that God may so move upon the souls of men that they may be brought to a vindication of the right by saner and less violent measures. We desire to speak to you, therefore, at this time on the subject announced, 'When Wars Shall Cease.' God, speaking through the prophet Isaiah, declares that the time will come when men 'shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks.' This end, the consummation of which is greatly to be desired, will come only when we cease lauding the glory of war.

"The era of universal peace will never be brought about by drilling the war spirit into our youth in the public schools. War will come to an end when the public mind is imbued with the thought that it is just as much a disgrace for two nations to draw the sword in deadly conflict as it is for two men to determine which one is right by fighting a duel. We call one a crime, but multiply this evil by 10,000 and it becomes a thing in which we glory. The fact is that it is a shame and a disgrace for a people who enjoy the benefits of a Christian civilization to make red the ground with human blood, to turn the earth into a mighty slaughter pen.

Devilish Dispositions
"We are told that war is hell; but that is not all of it, for it produces devilish dispositions. Wars will cease when our false ideas of patriotism are dispelled, and nations like individuals learn to respect and regard the rights of others. Man in his wisdom has decreed that the only surety for peace is to be found in great armies and navies. In reply we answer that it took just seven days to plunge nine countries into the bloodiest conflict the world has ever known, and that over nothing.

"The folly of relying upon armored fleets and death-dealing devices to bring about a universal era of peace ought to be apparent to all; for when any country is making constant preparations for war, there is going to be trouble sooner or later. Others will arm themselves in defense, and the time will come when supremacy will be determined by a mighty clash, while the innocent are the ones who will be called upon to suffer.

For International Peace
"Conditions may arise that will justify great conflicts, arousing men to great demonstrations and heated words. These outbursts do but indicate intensity of feeling, great concern and conviction; but when the storm is over adjustments may be made without much harm to any one; whereas war is destructive, barbarous and unreasonable. At such times crises will continue to arise; but the fogs of passion, avarice and misunderstanding will best be cleared away by peaceful diplomacy, as is shown in the person of Christ, who when he was reviled, reviled not

The Braves took a doubleheader from the Robins, 9 to 3, and 6 to 5, the last going sixteen innings and went into third place.

The Giants took a pair from the Phils, 5 to 1 and 13 to 7.

Pittsburgh added two wins at the expense of the Cubs. Scores, 13 to 0 and 6 to 3.

The Reds went farther into the cellar, losing two games to the Cards, 9 to 4 and 7 to 4.

The Athletics were the only American league team to win two games. They beat the Red Sox 8 to 1 and 2 to 1.

The champion Indians won the first from Detroit, 6 to 5 and lost the second, 9 to 5.

The Yankees won the first from the Senators, 2 to 1, and dropped the second tussle, 1 to 0.

The Browns beat the White Sox, 14 to 5, and then lost, 8 to 5.

San Francisco ball players will remember Memorial day as a day on which their batting averages got a nice fattening. The Seals, in two games yesterday with the Oaks got a total of forty hits and twenty-nine runs. They won the first game 9 to 5 and the afternoon game 20 to 4. Six Oakland pitchers failed to stop the Seals in the afternoon.

Sacramento took both games yesterday from Los Angeles, 5 to 0, and 2 to 0.

Salt Lake and Portland split even on the day as did Vernon and Seattle. Salt Lake won the morning game, 9 to 0, and Portland the afternoon, 3 to 2. Vernon beat Seattle in the morning, 2 to 1, and Seattle got more than even in the afternoon, winning 12 to 2.

Modern Equipment For Sterilizing Dressings

In the sterilizing room at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital the autoclave does a rapid and thorough work in rendering dressings sterile and is so arranged that after the dressings are thoroughly steamed, and the power turned off, an exhaust is opened which creates a vacuum thereby drying the dressings ready for use. It requires thirty minutes at a pressure of fifteen to eighteen pounds to do the work. The automatic blow out conducts the steam out through the roof so that none escapes into the room.

Several other additions and improvements have been made recently, one of which is the screening in of the long porches. Several extra beds have been added and other apparatus in the way of additional lavatories, and instrument sinks are on their way.

The managers are doing all in their power to make the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital as thoroughly modern and complete as it is possible to do so.

Community Sing Will Be Feature Tonight

One of the first programs to be given in Glendale in observance of music week will be given at the high school tonight in the form of a community sing, led by Mrs. C. A. Parker. Solo numbers and choruses by the Madrigal club will also be part of the entertainment. There will be no admission fee and the public is cordially invited to attend.

again. May it please God to call all the civilized nations of the earth to turn from our recent carnage of blood to unite in a demand for a reduction of armaments by international agreement in the interest of universal peace."
